Ned Smith Center for Nature and Art

Offering a Members Only Hike

To Observe a Nesting Family of Bald Eagles

Millersburg, Pa. -- The Ned Smith Center for Nature and Art is offering a very unique and rare experience to twenty lucky Ned Smith Center Members. On Saturday, June 3, from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m., Scott Bills of the Pennsylvania Game Commission will lead a hike on Haldeman Island to acquaint everyone with the progress of the Game Commission's bald eagle reintroduction program in Pennsylvania. We will hike to a bald eagle's nest and observe a family of eagles. Bring binoculars or a spotting scope and dress appropriately for a long hike in high grasses.

This event is free however; space is limited to the first 20 people who register. All registered participants will need to meet in the Ranch House Restaurant parking lot by 7:45 a.m. The Ranch House Restaurant is located four miles north of Duncannon on Routes 11 & 15. Please register by calling the NSCNA at 717-692-3699. You won't want to miss this extraordinary experience!

For more information on this hike or on other events, call the NSCNA at 717-692-3699 or visit our website at www.nedsmithcenter.org <<http://www.nedsmithcenter.org/>> .

The Ned Smith Center for Nature and Art was founded in 1993 to celebrate the life and works of its namesake, the nationally recognized wildlife artist, naturalist and writer, Ned Smith. The Center's Olewine Art Gallery and gift shop are open Tuesday-Saturday 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.
